

Non-Discrimination Policy

It is the policy and commitment of the Rotary Club of Santa Rosa Foundation that it does not discriminate on the basis of race, age, color, sex, national origin, physical or mental disability, or religion.

Equal Employment Opportunity

The Rotary Club of Santa Rosa Foundation is committed to a policy of equal employment opportunity and does not discriminate in the terms, conditions, or privileges of employment on account of race, age, color, sex, national origin, physical or mental disability, or religion or otherwise as may be prohibited by federal and state law.

Any employee, board member, volunteer or client who believes that she/he or any other affiliate of the Rotary Club of Santa Rosa Foundation has been discriminated against is strongly encouraged to report this concern promptly to the Executive Committee.

Discriminatory Harassment

Harassment or intimidation of a client, staff person or guest because of that person's race, age, color, sex, national origin, physical or mental disability, or religion is specifically prohibited and may be grounds for termination. Harassment and intimidation include abusive, foul, or threatening language or behavior. The Rotary Club of Santa Rosa Foundation is committed to maintaining a workplace that is free of any such harassment and will not tolerate discrimination against staff members, volunteers, or agency clients.

Issues of discriminatory treatment, harassment, or intimidation on any of these bases should immediately be reported to the Executive Committee.
