

Retired Navy Capt. Brett Crozier To Speak, Sign Books, at Santa Rosa High School on June 16

Crozier was relieved of command of the aircraft carrier Theodore Roosevelt after pleading for more decisive Navy action as COVID-19 spread among his crew

Brett Crozier, the retired Navy officer whose efforts to protect his crew from COVID-19 led to him being relieved of command of the aircraft carrier Theodore Roosevelt, will speak and sign copies of his new book June 16 at Santa Rosa High School.

A 1988 graduate of the school, Crozier is co-author of “Surf When You Can: Lessons in Life, Loyalty, and Leadership from a Maverick Navy Captain.”

Crozier chose to return to Santa Rosa for his first book event. He will speak in the auditorium at Santa Rosa High at 7 p.m. Friday, June 16.

There is no admission charge, but the co-hosting Copperfield’s Books asks that people interested in attending pre-register at: <https://www.copperfieldsbooks.com/event/brett-crozier>. Also at that site, copies of Crozier’s book can be purchased for pick up at the June 16 event.

“Surf When You Can,” co-authored by Michael Vlessides, is set for release June 13 by Atria Books, a division of Simon & Schuster.
